DISSECTION: Photographs of a Rite of Passage in American Medicine, 1880-1930.
By John Harley Warner and James M. Edmonson.

Cadavers, camera, action! With the rise of photography, portraiture entered the medical-school dissecting room. Students staged class pictures, but also elaborate tableaus, as in the image above, circa 1900.